Memorandum for: Research
From: Joseph E. Butler
Re: Friedrich Zumbach

As of possible interest to you, British sources advised that the captioned individual who was sometimes head of the German Sabotage Section in Spain, has now been cleared in Germany so that he can proceed to this country. He proposed to take up residence in Madrid at Plaza de las Cortes No. 9. The British said: "We now have all the S.D. senior officers and most of the 'Bach' kings back and most of them 'muy bien enmufados'."
